

A MESSAGE FROM THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Direct Deposit for your Federal government payment.

Simple. Safe. Secure.

Starting January 2, 1999, most Federal payments will be issued through Direct Deposit.

Your money is automatically deposited to your account at a bank, savings and loan, or credit union. If you don't want Direct Deposit, you can still receive your money by check.

Whatever choice you make, your Federal payments will continue to be made on time and without interruption.

Take the time to make the choice that's right for you. To learn more, see your bank, savings and loan, or credit union. Or call one of the Federal paying agencies below.
